

Name: Class: No: Marks Scored:

Date

Marks got	Mark	Se No	Question	Answer
	1	1	Where was Aristotle Born? a) Greece b) Athens c) Stagira d) None of the above
	1	2	Aristotle was born in a city state. True or False?
	1	3	Which great King did Aristotle influence?
	1	4	Name Aristotle's academy
	4	5	Regarding Aristotle, what are the portions covered in our syllabus?	1. 2. 3. 4.
	1	6	What is the term used by Aristotle to mean 'community'?
	2	7	"It (state) came into being for the sake ofand continues for"	1. 2.
	1	8	"There can be no opposition between 'it' and the individual"--- What ?
	1	9	Just as family is natural, thealso is natural.
	3	10	Mention three characteristics of the Aristotelian State.	1. 2. 3.
	2	11	What are the two kinds of 'instruments' needed to lead a good life?	1 2
	2	12	Give one example each for the answer of the above question.	1. 2.
Bonus Quest	2	13	Masters possesstrength, while the slaves possess strength only.	1. 2.
Bonus Quest	1	14	With his attachment to the master, the slave also gets moral and intellectual virtues in a manner.
	1	15	Slavery is good for the slave because it
	1	16	According to Aristotle, constitution is the arrangement of theof the state
	1	17	nature of the ruling class determines the nature of the constitution
	3	18	What are the different types of government?	1. 2. 3.
	3	19	What are the perverted forms of government?	1 2 3
	3	20 is the best form of government because, it has the highest	1. 2.

-
1. Stagira. 2. False 3. Alexander 4. Lyceum 5. state, government, Revolution, Slavery.
 6. 'Koimonia' 7. life, the sake of good life 8. State. 9. state
 10. Association of association, organic, moral. 11. animate, inanimate 12. slaves, property.
 13. intellectual, physical 14. second hand. 15. enables him to share the virtuous life of the master.
 16. offices 17. ruling class 18. Kingship, aristocracy, polity. 19. tyranny, oligarchy, democracy.
 20. Monarchy, virtue
-