

Date:.....

TEST PAPER

Name:.....Class... No:.....Marks:

--

1.	Jean Bodin was apolitical philosopher (country)	1
2.	Bodin’s theories of&.....are included in the syllabus.	2
3.	According to Bodin, Sovereignty is the expression of the will of the	1
4.	Bodin’s sovereign can take away property of citizens. True or False?.....	1
5.	Bodin sovereignty is indivisible. True or False?.....	1
6.	Bodin supported absolute monarchy. True of False.....	1
7.	Bodin’s concept of sovereignty was based on two pillars. 1.....2.....	2
8.	Bodin’s Sovereignty is originally vested in the in their collective capacity.	1
9.	Bodin was against the control of extra territorial authorities like.....	1
10.	Sovereign may die; but will continue.	1
11.	Bodin’s sovereignty is alienable. True or False?	1
12.	The cause of revolution may be,..... or	1
13.andhave an effect on the character and behavior of people.	1
14.	Hugo Grotius portions in the syllabus:.....&.....	2
15.	Greatest contribution of Hugo Grotius was in the field of1	1
16.	Grotius: Natural Law is independent of Divine guidance and power. True or False?.....	1
17.	Grotius: Only God can change Natural Law. True or False.....	1
18.	Jus Voluntarium it is a sub ordinate of	1
19.	The subdivisions of Jus Voluntarium are.....	3
20.	Which Law provides a body of international laws and customs?	1
21.	Explain Grotius idea on Sovereignty:.....	5

1. French 2. Sovereignty and Revolution 3. Community 4. False. 5. True 6.true . 1. Religious Toleration and 2. Absolute sovereign. 8. People 9. Papacy 10. Sovereignty 11. False. 12. Human natural or divine. 13. Topography, climate 14. sovereignty & Law. 15. International Law.16. True. 17. False.18. Jus Naturale 19. Law of God (Jus Divinum), Law of the State (Jus Civile), and Law of Nations (Jus Gentium). 20.Jus Gentium 21.product of social life, human origin, vested in the people,delegated conditionally or unconditionally,originates from the people,no right to resist ,sovereign is supreme,within their territorial authority is supreme